GOBARDANGA HINDU COLLEGE
NAAC ACCREDITED (2005 & 2016) AT GRADE "A"
KHANTURA, DIST. NORTH 24 PARGANAS, PIN 743273, WEST BENGAL

Ref. ....   Date : ....

IQAC Action Taken Report: 2021-22

1. The IQAC has been actively organizing a series of informative webinars, engaging talks, and enlightening lectures featuring distinguished speakers from diverse backgrounds in spite of several hindrances owing to COVID-19.
2. Monitoring the online classes and preparing the special routines for the needs of the various departments.
3. Proceeding with the elaborate year long celebrations for the platinum jubilee celebrations of the institution. Regular meetings, program schedules preparation with active cooperation from the alumni, present and ex- students, teachers, staff and all stakeholders.
4. Regular upgradation of LMS data by all faculty members.
5. regular and special meetings to expedite our preparations for the forthcoming NAAC session, striving to reach a level of excellence.
6. Maintenance of rainwater harvesting system and solar power generation for Ecodfriendly campus.
7. Enthusiastically motivating both students and teachers to actively participate in various social activities initiated by NSS Units.
8. Research and Development Cell established according to the UGC guidelines
9. women's cell fostering a positive impact on the community.
10. Embracing the advantages of technology college successfully conducted all examinations, including internal assessments and end semester exams, to online platforms while still accommodating offline project and assignment submissions to support students facing connectivity issues.
11. Increased the percentage of attendance of classes and the calculation of attendance became simplified.
12. Regular student counselling session
13. Various departments introduced Add-on courses
14. Mental health mapping project runs successfully
15. Dissemination of information to all stakeholders made easier and more flexible, accessibility of students to notices/ result and other important information or data made easier.
16. Non-teaching staff's participation in computer skill development leads to enhanced digital proficiency, streamlined administrative processes, improved communication, adaptability to technology changes, and overall institutional growth.
17. Increased MOUs lead to diverse perspectives, resource sharing, global exposure, industry connections, and enhancedresearch opportunities. They foster networking, elevate institutional reputation, and create mutual benefits, elevating academic standards and enriching the overall educational experience.

Principal
Gobardanga Hindu College
North 24 Parganas