Resolution:

The resolutions of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.

The meeting resolved that:

1. Although the online classes have started for a few weeks now there is a mixed response from the students regarding the classes. Many of them are living in remote areas and facing internet problem due to network issues and for that reason they are not able to attend classes regularly. Various faculty members have shared their online class experiences with IQAC. In this situation IQAC will advise all faculty members and college authority to start online counselling to students and submit reports to college authority after documenting and analyzing their problems. However, it was decided that prior to beginning of the next academic session students have to be oriented to overcome this crisis situation. There is a need of interactive session with the student of various department to motivate them psychologically and academically. Student can be taught the use of Google classroom. Study material can be sent to the student via WhatsApp group. Orientation of the student to the college can be done through online counselling programme or interactive session.

2. The meeting resolved that all faculty members should try to take directly with each student and try to convince and encourage them to pursue the study and join online classes regularly. If the student have any financial problems they should try to know about it and the college authorities should ensure that no student drop out of studies due to financial reasons.

3. Keeping in mind the pandemic situation IQAC advises the college authority to purchase some updat learning management software for facilitating teaching and learning. Also, the college authorities are advised to help the faculty members financially so that they can buy some online tools or other devices to continue the online teaching process without any interruption.

4. IQAC suggests to take necessary steps regarding student counselling and advised the Bordin committee to arrange an Interaction class each day in ~~am~~ which must be reflected in the Academic Time Table.

5. The meeting resolved that an corpus fund generated from the T & AC sponsored International Seminars held on 5th & 6th January, 2020 will be submitted from college account for other development activities of the college.

6. It was assumed that there is a need to update IT infrastructure of the college to cater the need of enhanced students' strength. T & AC suggest to add a new computer laboratory and few smart classrooms so that after the academic situation students and faculty members may continue the blended method of teaching learning.

7. It was resolved that due to pandemic and lockdown all classes will be held online until further notice/order by the Govt. of West Bengal and UAC. In this circumstances the academic calendar of this year is subject to major change. An outline of the academic calendar has been prepared and may be updated time to time.

8. It was noted that as per direction of the Government of India the college are to remain closed for students and faculty. Only some non-teaching staff and visiting faculty members related to various academic works like answer script evaluation, admission related activities or other administrative works may come in the college ~~and~~ after if the situation being controlled.

9. It was ~~resolved~~ resolved that the precautionary guidelines as given by the government for control and management of COVID-19 pandemic should be observed till such time as the college is closed ^{for} students and faculty.

Resolutions :

Resolution of the previous IQAC meeting were read and confirmed.

1. Keeping in mind the pandemic and lockdown situation IQAC is suggesting the Admission committee to prepare the complete ~~rule~~ and plan of admission process of the next session. Special care is being taken to ensure that this process complies with all COVID related regulations and all government and UGC directives are followed in this regard. The new online admission in Semester-I will be undertaken as per UGC and WBSU guidelines like past years.

2. IQAC advised the Finance Committee to allocate a separate budget ^{plan} for the scholarships to economically challenged students.

3. IQAC proposed the Examination Committee to chalk out the plan of Internal Assessment to Semester - VI. After necessary discussion it was resolved that the manuscripts of B.A-B.Sc. B.com. will be collected through online or offline as per the UGC and WBSU guidelines. In case of offline manuscript collection all protocol of COVID-19 should be followed strictly. To avoid the gathering of students multiple counter should be opened for the collection of answer scripts. On the same day of the answer script collection it will be handed over to the respective department for prompt evaluation of the answer script.

4. IQAC proposed to make a flexible online routine for all even semester classes. In this regard IQAC requested to the routine Committee to prepare the routine (timetable) within 7 days.

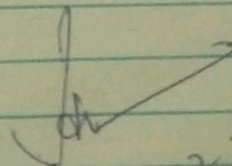

5. IQAC proposed to make an estimated budget for the financial aid of the Teachers who have attended and presented papers in seminar or workshops during this year. I SAC recommended to the Finance committee and the Bursar to make a report in this regard.

6. It was resolved that unanimously that more and more inter-disciplinary initiatives to be organised in the department to involve students and faculty members during the lockdown situation.

7. I SAC coordinator reported that I SAC took initiative to frame the following policies:

1. Policy of maintenance of Infrastructure
2. Research Policy
3. Policy of Faculty / Student Exchange Programme.
4. Policy of Gender Sensitivity and
5. Policy on Advanced and Slow Learner.
