IQAC Meeting Dated : 16/03/2019

Venue : Principal's Room.

Agenda 1. - Recommendations for Quality Enhancement of the Institution

1. To make maximum utilization of existing resources.

- a) The IQAC has made a serious attempt to utilise existing resources. Space utilisation comprises one such effort. Existing rooms and newly constructed rooms are being extensively used for the newly introduced courses. 250^{new} benches have been procured exclusively for this purpose. Therefore accommodation of students increases accordingly.
- b) The Exhibition, Annual Cultural Competition and Sports Events were organized. The maximum utilisation of teachers' and students' resources and their innovative faculties accordingly made possible. A total of _____ number of students eagerly participated in the aforesaid events and assured a greater unity between teachers and students and fostering a better bonding thus improving the ambience of the institution.

2. Mentor to utilize online courses.

The IQAC has initiated efforts to introduce on-line courses offered by IIT Mumbai. The courses are duly sanctioned and approved by UGC MHRD, India. The list of the courses are available through the following links provided by IIT Mumbai website -

<http://spoken-tutorial.org>

MHRD link -

<http://mhrd.gov.in/e-content>

Shakshat link -

www.sakshat.ac.in

The teachers of the Computer Science Dept. are helping to run this course.

IQAC Meeting Dated : 16/03/2019

Venue : Principal's Room.

3. Overcome impediments to fill the existing positions.

- a) The college has made repeated communications to fill the existing positions of permanent staff (both Teaching and Non-Teaching). The Roster is being maintained strictly. The college is maintaining regular correspondence with the Higher Education Department.
- b) The IQAC strongly recommends de-reservation of posts where candidates are not provided by the College Service Commission.

4. Collaborate with Industry and Experts

The IQAC recommends the exploration of possible collaborations particularly in the Science stream by the Research Committee of the college.

The Research Committee must hold meetings and discussions within 30th April, 2019 and report.

Sericulture, Poultry farming, etc. may also form part of this endeavour. The depts. of Zoology, Botany must express their interest to the Research Committee accordingly. The IQAC requests the Dept. of Chemistry to explore collaborations in future.

5. Efforts be made to harness financial resources from funding agencies

The Research Committee is prepared to harness financial resources from funding agencies. They are actively involved in exploring newer agencies for funding.

- Recently a funding for A Workshop-cum-Seminar
- a) for Science Awareness Programmes with school students was applied by Dr. Suman Roy (Physics Dept, P.T.T, Govt. Approved) and Dr. Chinmoy Pal (Chemistry Dept, Asst. Prof.) to the Higher Education Dept, of the Govt. of West Bengal.
 - b) A NAAC Sponsored National Seminar was organised jointly by IAAC and Dept. of B.Ed on 27th and 28th February, 2019
 - c) There is further scope for Science-based subjects to get funds from DST-FIST. The Research Committee may investigate further.
6. Proactive Career Counselling and Placement cell
Need of the Hour.

Exit Entry - in-service Coaching classes to be introduced with the use of modern software techniques. Teachers to be included in the programme and students to be accordingly motivated for this purpose.

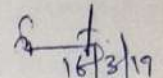

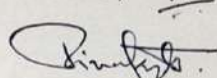

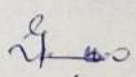

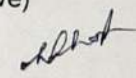

7. Introduce more Graduate and Post-graduate Programs

The IAAC has attempted to introduce new graduate and post-graduate courses.

So far 6 Honours courses have been introduced
& 3 general courses have been introduced.
1 new post-graduate too has been introduced.

There will always be a target for beginning new PG Courses by the next academic session. The subjects that may be considered after prior review are Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. These departments may submit proposals for beginning of the new courses at the PG level. Proposals for including quality teachers as Guest faculty for Masters/PG in various subjects to be considered.
